Unique

Every aspect of The Møller Centre has been designed to meet the needs of our clients.

Just 50 minutes from London, our award-winning residential management training and conference centre is set in the grounds of Churchill College, University of Cambridge.

The Møller Centre was opened in 1992, through a donation by the A.P. Møller & Chastine Mc-Kinney Møller Foundation. The benefactor's vision was to create a centre of excellence where links between commerce and the world-class University of Cambridge would be forged to provide continuing professional development.

Today, The Møller Centre's mission is to support our clients to acquire knowledge for professional development and personal and business success.

“The Møller Centre combines state of the art facilities with world-class customer service. The staff are never satisfied, continually improving the service at the slightest suggestion.”

Inspiring

The stunning architecture, creative working spaces and contemporary accommodation combine to create a truly inspirational environment.

With the emphasis on natural daylight, clean lines and flexibility, the training rooms all have direct access to networking areas and outdoor terraces. Iconic Hans Wegner chairs are used throughout, effortlessly blending quality and style with individual comfort.

Set among 42 acres of parkland, the Centre promotes a sense of calm and clarity of thought, allowing you to focus and achieve during the day. Once your work is complete many exciting options for culture, leisure and relaxation are available.

“We love the unique design; the meeting rooms with natural light and direct access to the grounds encourage concentration and great results.”

Expert

Being part of a world-class university means that we have access to leaders from the fields of education, industry and research. In addition to hosting training events we also produce programmes ourselves.

The Study Centre has been designed as a Collaborative Learning Environment with a flexible physical space that can cater for both structured and informal learning. The extensive range of IT and multi-media resources enables trainers to create powerful, interactive learning experiences.

We understand that your organisation needs to justify its expenditure and achieve a good return on its investment. We recognise the ROI™ Institute methodology for measuring the results of training and development, and can help you apply it to your event.

“The Centre has a feeling of Harvard about it – not only in the physical design of the training rooms, but also in the academic and business atmosphere.”

Spacious

Designed for exceptional comfort and conducive to sustained periods of concentration, our 23 modern training rooms can accommodate groups of up to 150 delegates.

These spacious training rooms can be quickly re-configured with minimal disruption during the day to allow for a variety of flexible and creative working styles.

The 71 bedrooms, all en-suite and air-conditioned with views over the grounds of Churchill College, provide the perfect sanctuary at the end of a successful day.

“Our meeting was quite complex, with frequent changes to the meeting rooms, everything went very smoothly and always with a smile.”

Individual

Every guest is unique, and every event or training programme has a different objective.

We plan your event with you to provide the ultimate combination of training and support activities to enable your delegates to derive the maximum benefit from their experience.

These activities can include team building, cultural or sporting activities, a company visit or simply recreational activities allowing delegates to unwind at the end of the day.

Our dedicated technical team is at hand to provide personalised support with the latest audio-visual equipment, state-of-the-art technology and infrastructure, including complimentary Wi-Fi broadband access throughout the site.

“The staff couldn’t be more helpful or attentive; they frequently check that everything is in order. Any requirements on the day of the training are quickly looked after with the minimum of fuss and in a professional manner.”

International

The Møller Centre's team is passionate about food. You can choose from a varied menu of locally sourced, high quality ingredients served in our restaurant, or enjoy a more flexible style of catering whilst networking.

To keep energy levels high at all times, a tempting and healthy selection of refreshments are available throughout the day.

In the evening, enjoy fine food and wine in our restaurant or exclusive dining rooms, or create a relaxed social environment with cultural events and a range of international cuisine.

Guests can enjoy drinks in the Tower Lounge Bar or on the roof terrace with stunning views over the Cambridge city skyline.

“Our delegates always comment on the standard of the food – high quality, varied, healthy and, most importantly, delicious!”

Well-being

To achieve the most out of every event or training programme, delegates need to feel positive and invigorated whilst they are working and entirely relaxed when resting so that they can start each new day or session totally refreshed and alert.

Every aspect of The Møller Centre has been designed to both stimulate and indulge our delegates. The meeting rooms with their views over the parkland, the spacious and comfortable bedrooms and the wholesome and delicious cuisine.

Visitors have access to a fully equipped gym and can use all our outdoor sports facilities including jogging trails, squash and tennis courts, football and cricket pitches.

By providing an uplifting environment in such a peaceful setting, The Møller Centre enables delegates to work harder and concentrate for longer.

“Tranquil location, spacious and comfortable bedrooms, healthy ‘all day’ refreshments ensure all delegates are energised – leading to a successful event.”

Vibrant

This modern facility benefits from strong connections with the University of Cambridge. We have access to its research and teaching resources and can call on some of the world's leading educational and industry experts to take part in the programmes we host.

As a centre of learning, culture and leisure, Cambridge has so much to offer. Delegates can take tours of the city, dine in a traditional Cambridge College, or take a chauffeured punt along the college Backs.

The Møller Centre is ideally located, just off the M11, close to Stansted Airport and a short taxi ride from Cambridge train station.
